Inside The Numbers

In winning the vacant European super bantamweight title by decisive unanimous, McCann also avenged the only blemish of his pro career, a ninth-round technical draw against Baluta nearly a year earlier. His neat, clean and authoritative long-range boxing piled up the points as well as the connects as he ended the match ahead 217-114 overall, 81-14 jabs, 52-46 body and 136-100 power while also landing 30% overall, 21% jabs and 42% power. His deft defensive skills limited Baluta to 14% overall, 7% jabs and 16% power but the rugged Romanian did his best to win as he constantly came forward and fired many more blows (70.3 punches per round to McCann's 59.6). McCann's superior ring generalship and marksmanship resulted in a 12-0 sweep in the CompuBox round-by-round breakdown of total connects, and he was able to stun Baluta several times. Scoring: 120-108, 117-111 (2x) M.
