Inside The Numbers

Shields scores her first knockout in nearly seven years with a second-round destruction of Joannis (7-1, won last four), who was floored three times in round two and failed to land a single punch against the Flint native, who added the WBO light heavyweight title and the WBC heavyweight title in a fight in which both scaled under 175. Shields averaged 41.1 punches per two-minute round (the equivalent of 61.7 over three minutes) to Joannis's 11.4 (17.1) and finished the fight ahead 10-0 overall, 1-0 jabs, 1-0 body and 9-0 power while landing 15% overall, 3% jabs and 25% power.
