Inside The Numbers

The fight looked like it would end early when Dalton knocked Germain down in the waning seconds of the second round. Germain survived, and though he was knocked down again early in the eleventh and in the closing minute of the twelfth round, he made it to the final bell. Dalton landed 87 more power punches and 42 more body shots than Germain. Several of Dalton's body punches strayed low, resulting in a point deduction in the last round. Though Dalton hurt Germain several times, his lack of combination punching aided Germain's survival. One judge scored the fight 117-107, and the other two judges scored the fight 119-105- all for Dalton.
