Inside The Numbers

Griffin threw 119 more punches than Rodriguez, but only landed 2 more punches. Rodriguez connected on 41% of his punches- 52% of his power punches, while Griffin connected on 27% and 31% respectively. Rodriguez's ability to get inside of Griffin's 5-inch reach advantage resulted in him landing the harder punches throughout the fight including the left hook that knocked Griffin out at 2:55 of the final round.
