Inside The Numbers

Gutierrez seemed to stun Chaparro in the second round, causing Chaparro to turn his back to Gutierrez, and fall to the canvas on what could have been ruled a knockdown. Chaparro survived, and out-landed Gutierrez 57-37 over the rest of the fight. The fight could have been stopped in the fifth round, when Chaparro had Gutierrez out on his feet. Sensing Gutierrez had nothing left, Chaparro pounced at the beginning of the sixth round and ended the fight 25 seconds into the round.
