Inside The Numbers

Opetaia retained the IBF cruiserweight title for the fourth time in his second reign courtesy of a one-punch KO over Cinkara (23-0), his mandatory challenger. In doing so, Opetaia overcame a scary moment when he was buckled by a counter right to the jaw and also experienced significant swelling under the right eye in what was a two-minute round four, but, otherwise, he was in control throughout. The pace was tactical as Opetaia averaged 41.2 punches compared to Cinkara's anemic 19.0, but the champion's accuracy gaps of 33%-10% overall, 31%-8% jabs and 34%-12% power resulted in final margins of 99-14 overall, 24-5 jabs, 52-1 body, 75-9 power and 8-0 in the CompuBox round-by-round breakdown of total connects. Opetaia landed more total punches in rounds three (15), five (22) and seven (15) than Cinkara did in the entire bout (14).
