Inside The Numbers

Shields reclaimed the WBA and WBC middleweight titles with a sixth-round stoppage, landing 76 power punches in the process. She out-landed Scott 29 to 14 over the first two rounds, and Scott answered by trying to fight fire with fire, landing 26 punches in rounds three and four to Shields' 28. The exchanges cost her. Shields opened up in the fifth, landing 22 punches to Scott's 15, then dropped Scott in the sixth and followed with a barrage that prompted Scott's corner to throw in the towel at 1:38.
