Inside The Numbers

Cejudo, the 39-year-old former two-division UFC champion, successfully debuted in boxing by defeating the 20-year-old southpaw Walton (3-0-1, won last two), who took this match on short notice. Cejudo neutralized Walton's height and reach advantages as well as his better work rate (54.5 punches per round to Cejudo's 43.3) by landing well-timed rights down the middle, and his blend of superior accuracy (27%-17% overall, 10%-2% jabs, 34%-28% power) and harder connects enabled him to earn the split decision victory. Cejudo ended the match ahead 47-37 overall, 5-2 jabs, 12-7 body, 42-35 power and 3-1 in the CompuBox round-by-round breakdown of total connects. Scoring: 39-37 (2x) C, 39-37 W.
