Inside The Numbers

Zaina came in an 18-to-1 underdog and tried to use his four-inch height and one-inch reach advantages to keep Martin at bay. Martin landed eight body punches in the first round, but Zaina adjusted defensively, allowing only 16 more body shots over the next six rounds. After Zaina out-landed Martin 9-6 in power punches over rounds five and six, Martin caught him with a left hook in the seventh and knocked him down. A follow-up barrage convinced the referee to stop the fight at 2:38 of the round. Martin became the first fighter to stop Zaina.
